RE: UACC Midwest Inc. d/b/a United Artists Cable Mississippi
Gulf Coast, Telecable Associates, Incorporated, Northlands Cable

Mississippi Cable Television Association v. South Central Bell
Telephone Company
Opposition to Motion to Dismiss

Dear Judge Chachkin:

In its Motion of July 17, 1995, Bell South alleges that the notice of appearance was late filed and that no fee has been paid.

Attached is the Notice of Appearance file stamped with the filing date of July 5. Bell South's researchers have apparently pulled the extra copies filed the next day at the request of the Secretary.

Attached also are copies of the fees paid at the outset of this case. Pole attachment cases are subject to their own fee schedule, which should be evident from the record and processing of this case. Fees for formal common carrier licensing hearings are not applicable to the use of an abbreviated hearing process to handle computational issues within the pole rules. The HDO takes pains to narrow the issues to be quite unlike conventional hearings; and Congress specified that pole attachments cases should not be treated like other Title II proceedings. S. Rep. 95-580, 95th Cong., 1st Sess. 21 (Since S. 1547 ... does not define the provision of pole attachments as a common carrier service, the full panoply of regulatory procedures and enforcement mechanisms provided in Title II ... would not automatically extend ...)

Sincerely,
